FRIDAY, — — — AUGUST 31, 1855.

The great Democratic meeting at Indianapolis was attended by many from this State, who wished to see the glorious Democracy of our neighboring State, and hear if they treated Abolition, Know-Nothing, and other political topics, as the Democracy of this State do. They were gratified with what they saw and heard. We have not room for a full account of the speeches, but here are a few items from the Cincinnati Commercial, that will show the spirit of the gathering:

At 8 o'clock, A. M., the Marion county delegation, representing six townships, assembled in the court-house square, and were joined by the Indiana, North, and South, and various national airs with exquisite art and execution. Each township carried a banner, and the motto, "Truth, Justice, and Freedom, and the following:

"GOD'S DEPARTMENT IN KNOW-NOTHING STOCK."

"CONTRIBUTION TO MUNICIPAL ADMINISTRATION."

"THE FRIENDSHIP OF THE UNION," and the slogan, "Marion county abounding with hundred thousand."

"THE UNION."

Warren township was composed of about a thousand sturdy Democrats, who appeared in the public square in full array, and sang the grand green-horn songs; they had for their motto—

"THE SPIRIT OF '76."

Beaumont turned out strong. They were on foot and on horseback with their banners, and sang the grand green-horn songs; they had for their motto—

"GOD'S NOT WITH US."

Another banner was carried by a slave holder whipping a slave with the words—

"SOUTHERN KNOW-NOTHING!"

The other a Northern Abolitionist, walking arm in arm with a colored woman, and sang the grand green-horn songs; they had for their motto—

"NOTHIN' BUT KNOW-NOTHING."

There were many other quaint devices, which your reporter had no time to enumerate.

SCENE AT THE DEPOT.

At about ten o'clock the delegation which had arrived proceeded to the Union Depot, in order to observe those who were to come from the distant counties, and the various delegations from the different parts of the country, who were to be present at the meeting.

The country, was crowded to its utmost capacity, and the streets were filled with an enthusiastic population, who were in high spirits, and the Congress was in full swing.

The "Ferry Train" came in with a delegation of four from Marion county, and the Marion delegation, who had been organized at the depot, and the crowd was immense.

The following resolutions were passed. A further account of the speeches we must defer until to-morrow:

WHEREAS, As we have assembled here to-day as a mass meeting of the National Democracy of Indiana, we have resolved to support the Know-Nothing party, and to sustain their principles, and to nominate candidates for Senator and other offices.

Resolved, That we affiliate with the name of National Democracy, and that we expect to follow the lead of the Union, and the Constitution, and the Government of the United States.

Resolved, That our name is as unchangeable as our principles, and as immovable as the foundations of the Universe.

Resolved, That we associate ourselves with the principles of our institutions, and are ready to support the principles of the Union, and the Constitution, and the Government of the United States.

Resolved, That we are anxious to continue our efforts in the cause of our institutions, and are ready to support the principles of the Union, and the Constitution, and the Government of the United States.

Resolved, That we are anxious to continue our efforts in the cause of our institutions, and are ready to support the principles of the Union, and the Constitution, and the Government of the United States.

Resolved, That we are anxious to continue our efforts in the cause of our institutions, and are ready to support the principles of the Union, and the Constitution, and the Government of the United States.

Resolved, That we are anxious to continue our efforts in the cause of our institutions, and are ready to support the principles of the Union, and the Constitution, and the Government of the United States.

Resolved, That we are anxious to continue our efforts in the cause of our institutions, and are ready to support the principles of the Union, and the Constitution, and the Government of the United States.

Resolved, That we are anxious to continue our efforts in the cause of our institutions, and are ready to support the principles of the Union, and the Constitution, and the Government of the United States.

Resolved, That we are anxious to continue our efforts in the cause of our institutions, and are ready to support the principles of the Union, and the Constitution, and the Government of the United States.

HEAVY CONTRACT.—Last Monday Mr. Murphy contracted for five thousand barrels of potatoes, for a heavy New Orleans house, at one dollar and a quarter per barrel.

NEW COTTON COMING IN.—The new crop is arriving at New Orleans quite freely, and the receipts thus far are about one thousand nine hundred and forty bales, against thirty-five thousand for the same date last year, and only six bales the year previous.

We are obliged to Mr. A. M. Holman for a basket of the fresh peaches of the season. Mr. Holman has fruit for sale every day at the corner of Market and Third streets.

CONSISTENT, VERT.—The Cayennes, or soi disant Republicans of Dearborn county, Indiana, have shown their consistency by nominating upon their county ticket an Englishman and an Irishman.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—We learn that on Tuesday last, a son of the late Dr. Porter, of Middletown, in this county, 12 miles from Louisville, fell upon a pitchfork, wounding him so seriously that his life is despaired of.

A bill was recently before the Kansas Legislature for a charter of a bank with a capital of $1,000,000, with the privilege to double it—the institution to be located at Atchison. The capital stock was taken, and the Directors ready to proceed to business at once. St. Louis capitalists were largely interested in the enterprise. But the bill, after much excitement, was finally defeated before the styled Legislature.

An accident occurred on the Madison and Indianapolis Railroad, at Blue River, near Edinburg, on Wednesday morning, detaining the excursion train from Columbus three hours, and the morning train from South to Jeffersonville two hours, besides deranging the running of the other trains for the day. The locomotive of the freight train was thrown by several revolutions down a steep bank, wounding Mr. Chase, the engineer, who clung to it, and besides demolishing it to pieces, breaking up three freight cars loaded with wheat and one loaded with staves. The engineer made a fortunate escape with his life. The track was torn up a short distance, but was easily repaired at the passing of the down train this evening.

MELANCHOLY.—On Wednesday, as a gentleman of this city was coming to the ferry in New Albany, he overtook a couple of women who appeared very much distressed, one of them carrying a child that had just died. They belonged on this side of the river, and one of them, the mother, had taken her child to some physician in whom she had more confidence than any here. The gentleman saw them to the cars, and then to their home on Campbell street, not leaving until he had provided a coffin, and saw the child decently buried. How many such cases of unabated grief and heart-sore trouble occur every week in a large city!—The child was about two years old, but very much wasted with disease.

MR. HARNEY WILL be advertised, some time since, the following: For the best farce, in which an Irish male and Yankee female character shall be the leading features—one hundred and fifty dollars. For the best drama, in three acts, with an Irish male and Yankee female character—six hundred dollars. For the best comedy, in three or five acts, in which an Irish male and Yankee female character shall be the most prominent—five hundred dollars.

It is stated that twelve manuscript plays were received, which were referred to the committee appointed to decide upon their respective merits, who reported that no one of the twelve plays was fit to be performed, and recommended that Mr. Williams should decline paying for them, on the ground of their utter worthlessness.

Coward.

The Catholic priest of New Albany has lately received three anonymous letters, warning him that the church would be attacked and burned. To the first two paid no attention, but the third, the night on which the attack was to be made. He took it to the Mayor of the city, showed him it, and asked what he was to do; the Mayor replied that he did not know—that he could do nothing. The priest is a Frenchman. He told the Mayor that the church was his property, and he intended to defend it. So when night came—last night—he went to the church, having with him a double-barrelled shot-gun, loaded, and accompanied by some half dozen Irishmen. They waited till towards midnight, when a body of men came up. Before they had time to make an attack, he went out and asked them what they wanted.
